Re: United States v. Victor Santana, 19 Cr. 687 (VEC) – Fourth request adjournment of sentencing

Dear Judge Caproni:

I write to request a two-week adjournment of the sentencing schedule in this matter. The Government has consented to this request. This is the fourth request for an adjournment of sentencing. The sentencing schedule is as follows:

Submissions - January 7, 2021
Sentencing - January 21, 2021 at 10:00 a.m.

Dr. Berrill has visited Mr. Santana, performed the necessary evaluations and written a report, which was emailed to me yesterday. I am requesting an adjournment of the sentencing schedule, for an opportunity to review the report so that I may use it as a part of my submission. Accordingly, I request a two-week adjournment of the sentencing schedule.

Respectfully Submitted,

Karloff C. Commissiong, Esq.

Application GRANTED in part. The sentencing is adjourned to March 4, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. Sentencing submissions are due by February 18, 2021. The parties should plan to appear in person for the sentencing in Courtroom 443 at 40 Foley Square unless the Court orders otherwise.
